

Dear FCC,

Don't you dare remove the ban on cross ownership by media giants. Changes like that would make U.S. media even less diverse, more commercial and less accountable to the public.

Michael Powell, there is nothing patriotic about pandering to greed.